By choosing to attend the virtual Asian Family Enterprise Excellence Conference (AFEEC) 2021, you are choosing to agree and conform with these rules of conduct below:

1. To receive access to the virtual event, all attendees receive a one-time password (OTP) in their email address and/or mobile phone to verify their identity. Giving your attendee details and OTP to another person for purposes of admission to the virtual event is not permitted.

2. Audio or video recording, online streaming, still photography, or any other recordings of presentations during the virtual event is not permitted.

3. All materials, presentations, videos, papers, and other downloadable content is subject to copyright law and owned by the individual content producers including but not limited to the organizer of the AFEEC 2021, Premier Family Business Consulting. All rights reserved.

4. Virtual event attendees may not intentionally interrupt the virtual event or use of any other online media that interfaces with the virtual event including, but not limited to, sexualized language or imagery, inappropriate dialog, insults, political statements, or other content or communication outside the character and purpose of the AFEEC 2021.

5. Violation of the Rules of Conduct may result in verbal warning, restriction on attending future sessions, or removal from the virtual event without refund.
